The detailed route will be shared before the activity, but it is a walking route along paths, with little or no traffic from cars.

Activity price: €60

3. Presentation of the organizing entity

The Music Workshop is a non-profit youth service organization that offers leisure and free-time activities in the arts, primarily performing arts, in rural settings during holiday periods in Ibiza and Formentera.

Currently, the association's leadership consists of Pau, Xico, Irene, and Rosa. They have been running activities for eight years, including the "Music Camps," the "Music Week" during Holy Week, the "Music Tour" (a cycling event), and artistic residencies for young people in collaboration with the cultural collective and association Kesti Klab.

4. Introduction of the management and monitoring team

Together with other volunteers, we are a team of teachers and instructors with experience in formal and informal adventure and arts education.

The team for this new activity is:

Director: Pau Torres Serra

Instructors: Clàudia Riera Sala and Irene Riera Torres

5. Responsibilities and contact

As in previous years, we maintain insurance with Catalana-Occidente SA to cover accidents and civil liability related to the activity. The respective policies are T-04214447 and T-04200474.

For any emergencies that may arise during the activities, you can contact us by calling 657046694 (Pau Torres).

6. Rates, discounts and payment

The activity costs €60, which includes €25 for the kayak and €35 for association expenses, covering staff, snacks, breakfast, and lunch. Participants are responsible for bringing their own dinner on the first day.

Discounts

We offer the following discounts for this activity:

- €5 off if you have already participated in any activity with TdM this year
- €5 off for single-parent or large families
- €5 off for any type of disability.

Due to the limited scope of the activity, discounts cannot be combined.

However, the Taller de Músiques allocates a portion of its annual profits to offer broader discounts to those who cannot afford the activity due to their financial situation. No explanations will be asked; simply call us and we will reach an agreement, perhaps in exchange for volunteering or some other form of participation.

Current account number

Finally, here is the FIARE BANCA ÉTICA account number for the deposit.
When making the payment, please include the participant's first and last name.

Registration is not finalized until payment has been made.
